Hey Peter,

I just wanted to take a moment to thank you for letting Sophie be a part of the in-home experience. She was hesitant when we first talked about it, but her mother and I felt strongly that it would be good for her. I told her that as the program approached, she would probably change her mind and not want to attend, but that if she does it anyway, she would not regret it. Which is exactly what happened! She was nervous and wanted to skip the program, but she had an amazing time, both in the sessions and in her free time away from her friends and social media. We even started writing a new song together during some of her breaks.

Your program helped build up her confidence and gave her tools to use as she continues to navigate the possibility of a life in the performing arts.

I apologize again for delaying setting up her one-on-one sessions, but I'm grateful she will receive more instruction from you. And she is very excited about it!

Thanks so much for the work you do! It's amazing to see these kids open up and become sure of themselves while among their peers. We are very grateful!

We look forward to seeing you tomorrow.

Best,
Stephen
